COLLEGE DEALS TULSANS FIRST BLANK OF YEAR

Shifty Ada Southpaw Hurls
East Central To Glory
In Second Battle.

VISITORS SURPRISE

Shutout Strikes Schmidt's
Men Staggering Blow
After Hopes High.

Lefty Morrison, who was recently added to the East Central baseball team, dealt Tulsa University her first shut-out game Thursday afternoon when he pitched the Ada college to a 5 to 0 victory.

The young southpaw was in the game in good form, allowing only three hits and getting eight strikeouts. Clary, another youngster, was behind the bat and filled that position like a veteran. Fielding positions of the team were changed and with a new combination Coach Thompson sent the Schmidt machine home with its first defeat.

Paul Waner started the fun by swatting out a triple, and he crossed the home plate on a nice single by Burkhart. After allowing two hits in the second, two in the third and three in the fourth, Perry, moundman for the Tulsa squad, left the box with a 4 to 0 defeat staring him in the face. L. Stewart, leading mounds man from the visitors, was forced to go into the box and pitch the remaining five innings. He pitched Wednesday.

Burkhart was the hitter of the day, getting three out of four times up. Tiddle knocked in scores and then crossed the plate himself in the eighth on a triple. Stewart and Sunatona, Tulsa stars of the first game, continued to lead the visitors yesterday but their hits were few and far between. Morrison proved his pitching ability by getting himself out of two bad places.

Following is the game by-plays:
First Inning.

Tulsa—Stewart flew out to Tinkle; L. Stewart singled to center; Sunatona flew out to Evans; L. Stewart stole second, caught off base, Morrison to Miller. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Ada—Montgomery flew out to Sunatona; Evans flew out to Sunatona, Sunatona making star catch; Tinkle flew out to L. Stewart. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second Inning.
Tulsa—Hall hit by pitcher; Herndon out, Morrison to Waner, sacrificing Hall to second; Brownfield flew out to Harrison, who threw out Hall at second; Brownfield flew out to Harrison, who threw out Hall at second. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Ada—Waner opened with terrific smash to left center for three bases; Miller fanned; Burkhart hit to right, scoring Waner; Clary hits into double play, Perry to Seavitt to L. Stewart. One run, two hits, no errors.

Third Inning.
Tulsa—Stapp flew out to Evans; Seavitt flew out to Montgomery; Perry missed three. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Stewart substituted from first to pitcher for Perry, Brownfield going to first and White going to left field. Miller flew out to Brownfield; Burkhart singled to center and took second on over-throw at first; Clary flew out to Brownfield, Harrison, walked; Morrison out, Seavitt to Brownfield. Three runs, three hits, two errors.

Fifth Inning.

Four Companies Make Bid On Bridge Over S. Canadian River

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, April 14.—Four companies submitted bids on the bridge to be constructed over the South Canadian river at Newcastle when figures were received recently by the state highway department. The bidders were the Virginia Bridge and Iron company, the Missouri Valley Bridge company, and the Illinois Steel Bridge company. The bids will probably not be announced until near the end of the month, according to B. E. Clark, state highway commissioner.

An injunction brought against the commissioner by a taxpayer in McClain county to prevent the construction of the bridge, which would be under supervision of the state highway department, is still pending.

The bridge is to be one of the longest in the state, approximately 1,300 feet, and is expected to accommodate a large amount of traffic. There is now $212,000 available for the construction of the bridge, the commissioner said, but from the bids submitted this will not be enough to complete the project.

TRAIL BRANCH TO BE STARTED SOON

Ada Sends Biggest Number of Boosters to Coalgate
For District Meet.

Ada good roads fans, 75 strong, stormed the district Ozark Trails convention at Coalgate Thursday with the biggest delegation present and definitely registered Pontotoc county as an outstanding figure in the Stratford-Texas division fight for a modern highway.

Contracts for seven trails, pyramids along the division will be let at once and marking is scheduled to go forward rapidly. The contract for marking this division will be let to one person but pyramid contracts will be let individually by the towns in which they are to be constructed, it is understood.

Yesterday's meeting at the Williams theatre, Coalgate, was classed by local road boosters as one of the most enthusiastic that has been held in this part of the state. Big crowds from practically all towns along the route were present. Ada and Atoka took bands to advertise their presence and furnish life for the convention. Banners on the side of cars let other towns on the division know Ada was strongly in line for the Ozark Trail.

Hugo Sends Assurance.
Hugo was not represented but her Chamber of Commerce sent a telegram to be read on the convention floor pledging her earnest support for the move.

H. B. Roach, Ada, president of the Stratford-Texas route, opened the convention and enthusiastic reports of progress of the move were given by almost every town represented. Many reported that their entire quota for marking and building pyramids had been raised. Some doubt was raised as to enthusiasm along the southeast end of the route and President Roach announced that if towns along the present proposed route failed in their work, the trail would be taken by way of Paris, Texas, thence to Texarkana. This, however, the convention thought would be unnecessary as a ready response is now expected from all quarters.

Building of Ada's pyramid is expected to start within a short time, members of the local delegation announced. The Oklahoma Portland cement company has donated material for the pyramid.

Officials of the Good Road Motor club expressed public thanks today to the Ada High school band and its director, Prof. W. A. Hill, for their services. The band played at towns enroute and led a two-block procession of Ada boosters at Coalgate.

RUSSIAN LEADER ATTEMPTS RAIDS ON U. S. FINANCE

GENOA, Italy, April 14.—Christian Rakovsky, president of the Ukraine, promises to become one of the soviet delegation's brightest platform stars at the international economic conference. He made another attempt yesterday to raid the United States treasury through his proposal before the finance commission that the states possessing the greatest quantity of gold make loans to the poorest countries. He made particular reference to the United States.

The Ukraine president suggested loans to bankrupted countries on the basis of their population, which would naturally give Russia the lion's share, and his proposal has caused much humorous comment in conference circles.

Indications are that there will not be a day of the conference when Rakovsky will not make at least one speech on the necessity of proportioning the world's gold through loans to impoverished countries.

HE WHO HESITATES IS SAVED

BOLEN DENIES HE ASKED CLEMENCY

District Judge Refused To Recommend Leave For Stewart, He Says.

Emphatic denial that he has interceded in any way for clemency in the case of Ed Stewart, serving a sentence in the state penitentiary at McAlester on a bank robbery conviction, is set forth in a statement issued today by District Judge J. W. Bolen.

Judge Bolen has made public a letter which he wrote Wednesday to Gov. J. B. A. Robertson declaring that executive leniency in the form of leave of absence would be "subject you to great criticism." The name of Arthur Gotcher, under sentence on the same charge, was included in the district judge's letter recommending against freedom for the men, even temporarily.

Gotcher's parents were given a letter of recommendation from Judge Bolen because of illness in the home, Bolen said.

A telephone communication with the governor's office, secretary of paroles and pardons, this morning revealed the fact that Ed Stewart was allowed a 30-days leave, beginning April 7. Stewart could not be reached on a telephone today and it was not known whether he was in Ada. He is understood to have been here early in the week. An unofficial report said Stewart's leave had been revoked.

"I declined to make a recommendation for leave of absence for Stewart twice," Judge Bolen said, "and I wrote a letter to Dr. Deen to be handed his people declining to make a recommendation. I have persistently declined to recommend anything for Stewart. The last time was a week ago."

MacNider Not Upset Over Angry Actions Of Navy On Bonus

(By the Associated Press)
INDIANAPOLIS, April 14.—When informed that the naval post of the American Legion in New York City had surrendered its charter because of displeasure over the attitude of the legion on the bonus question, Hanford MacNider, national commander of the legion made the following comment:

"Cancellation of this post's charter reduces the total number of posts of the American Legion from 11,022 to 11,021. Fifty-six new posts have been chartered since April 1. The loss of the naval unit, therefore, reduces our net increase in the past thirteen days to only fifty-five posts."

Charles Russell Boud.

Among the graduating seniors this year will be one of the leading musicians of the school. Russell Boud, son of J. H. Boud, local merchant, is completing his four years of work at the local high school this year. He has been prominent in instrumental and vocal music.

He was winner of the boys' voice contest in the state meet last year, has been a member of the orchestra for three years and the school band for two years. He is planning to take up musical work after he leaves school. Russell is looking forward to enrolling in Baylor University.

COUNTY MEET TO DRAW MANY HERE

Lower Temperature May Cut Attendance, But Events Will Go On.

Candidates from all schools of the county began arriving at noon today to participate in the annual track and field meet to be held between schools of the county today and Saturday. A drop in the temperature has somewhat hampered the meet, officials said today, but present plans will be carried out.

Students from Vannoss, Stonewall, Francis and Roff were reporting at the registering places today and others were beginning to arrive from Allen and smaller schools of the county. Most of those entered in the meet came in automobiles. Rooms are needed for the students tonight, it was said.

While this afternoon was given over principally to preliminary events, the literary numbers were scheduled for tonight with a large number of entries. Girls' choruses and glee clubs were numerous and the boys' baseball tournament for tomorrow promised to be interesting. Track and field events will be completed Saturday afternoon.

PRESIDENT OBSERVES GOOD FRIDAY TODAY

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 14.—President Harding and members of his cabinet today declined to hold the regular Friday cabinet meeting in deference to Good Friday. The president, however, met the newspaper correspondents as usual.

NON-UNION RANKS SUPPORT STRIKE

Gains in Pennsylvania Coke
District Are Greatest Since Suspension.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 14.—With the ending today of the second week of the nationwide suspension of work in the coal industry, interest at union headquarters was centered in the progress of non-union workers in joining the walk-out. The total of 665,000 miners, claimed by the union, showed a gain of more than 25,000 during the week.

Gains scored in the Pennsylvania coke district were the most significant developments from the union point of view, while the only reversal was the temporary injunctions, affecting two important West Virginia fields, which hamper union activities. Plans were being laid by counsel to the union to contest the court orders.

The support gained in the Pennsylvania non-union field had encouraged union officials to send new organizers into the district there. While the whole outlook was favorable to a complete shut-down of mines, there are no predictions of such subjects by union officials. Organizers in some localities, were said to be having trouble in establishing contact with the non-union workers, union officials asserted, and meetings were difficult or impossible because of the activities of mine guards.

DOCTOR'S WIDOW JUMPS TO DEATH AFTER BROODING

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 14.—Another tragedy growing out of the sensational murder of Dr. Abraham Glickstein by Mrs. Lillian Raizen in Brooklyn last December, was recorded today when his widow, Mrs. Anna Glickstein, ended her life by leaping from the third story window of her mother's home in Brooklyn. The doctor's mother dropped dead at his funeral.

Mrs. Glickstein has been laboring under a heavy mental strain since her husband's death, members of the family reported, and it was said she had been brooding over the recent acquittal of Miss Olivia P. Stone, for the murder of Ellis Guy Kinkead, former Cincinnati lawyer. Mrs. Raizen, who has confessed the murder of Dr. Glickstein, is now a prisoner in the same jail where Miss Stone was incarcerated, awaiting trial.

Broken Bow Outpost Gets First Charter Issued in Country

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 14.—The first American Legion outpost charter in the United States has just been issued by department headquarters here to Line-Jenning post at Broken Bow, Oklahoma, according to Leon H. Brown, department adjutant. The outpost is connected with the Malcolm McClenahan post at Quinton. Although a number of outposts have been formed, that at Broken Bow is the first to receive a charter.

The outpost plan originated in Oklahoma, but is being copied in other states, according to Adjutant Brown. It consists in the forming in villages or rural communities of a small post which is entitled to a separate state charter, but which is connected to the nearest regular outpost by the latter's national charter.

Several outposts in the state have proved themselves very active, according to Adjutant Brown. One of these is at Porter where a clubhouse has been obtained. The parent post at Sentinel has as yet not kept pace with the outpost in this respect, the adjutant said.

SMALL CROWD OUT TO MASS MEETING

Conflicting Events Reduce Attendance at City Hall
To Talk Memorial.

Those who have been working on the Convention Memorial Hall project were disappointed last evening when only a handful of citizens gathered at the City Hall to discuss the matter. It is generally considered, however, that the citizens are interested in the matter and that the fact that numbers of other meetings were in progress last evening, coupled with the additional fact that scores of citizens had just returned from a trip overland to Coalgate and were tired, accounts for the small attendance.

Another opportunity will be given the citizens next Monday night to come out and hear the plans and make their ideas known. Committees were appointed last evening, the tasks of whom will be to see the leaders of all the organizations in Ada and solicit their support in getting a crowd out. As this is one of the most important things which has come up in years, those interested in it cannot understand the seeming indifference of so large a body of voters.

Those who attended the meeting last evening were enthusiastic about the project. Several thrilling talks were made which recalled the old time pep of Ada.

The plan which will be discussed Monday evening is the calling of an election to vote on a bond issue of $100,000, proceeds from the sale of which will be used to erect a Memorial Hall in honor of World War veterans. This would also serve as a convention hall and a home for several civic bodies. It is believed that it would prove a good investment inasmuch as it would make possible the bringing here of large conventions.

"WANDERER" IS CHARGED WITH FRANCIS BURGLARY

Jess Davis, who said he was a "road wanderer," was arrested last night by the Frisco special agent and turned over this morning to Sheriff Bob Duncan for arraignment on a charge of stealing an overcoat, overalls and a typewriter from the Frisco car foreman's office at Francis.

Davis entered a plea of not guilty this morning and said he was unable to make bond for $2,000. He is charged with burglary in the second degree. Davis said he was 22 years old and his parents lived in Texas.

SALES TAX GAINS IN PUBLIC FAVOR AFTER HARD TEST

New Revenue Bill Drawing
Many Complaints From Over the Country.

MAY HELP VET BONUS

Advocates Consider Plan of Manufacturing Tax
For War Awards.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Support of the sales tax as a safe and equitable method of raising revenue for the government is gaining many new adherents in both branches of congress.

The sentiment is particularly noticeable in the Senate, where many members who opposed this plan of taxation when it was proposed as an amendment to the revenue bill are beginning to realize they were misinformed when they cast their votes against it.

The unsatisfactory working of the new revenue bill, as evidenced by the stream of complaints flowing into the Treasury Department, has added strength to the cause of the sales tax because of the latter's simplicity and workableness, which have been demonstrated wherever it has been tried.

There is no question that when congress again takes up the task of drafting a revenue bill the friends of the sales tax will be in a stronger position than ever before and will be able to make their arguments felt in a manner that may result in the adoption of this method of taxation for all government purposes.

Among some of the sincere advocates of the sales tax measure there is a very strong sentiment in favor of amending the House bill for the soldiers' bonus to provide that the money for the bonus payments shall be raised by means of a general manufacturers' sales tax.

Senator Smoot's Views.
Senator Smoot, a pioneer among the Senators supporting the sales tax, is one of those who hold to this view. He has a number of supporters on the Finance Committee.

Senator Lodge, the Republican leader, favors this plan and President Harding himself has directed that the sales tax plan should be adopted to provide for the bonus.

There is some question, however, as to whether this will be done. The reason is found in the fact that many of those who favor the bonus believe that it is certain to arouse some hostility, and they fear that if such is the case, the sales tax itself will suffer from being linked with the bonus measure.

The plan now most generally favored by a majority of the finance committee is to amend the house bill so as to provide for cash payments with an implied understanding that the money for the purpose shall be taken from the payments of interest on the loans due from the foreign governments, thereby leaving the sales tax feature entirely out of consideration at this time.

If this should be done, sales tax advocates believe they will be in a stronger position to bring in a sales tax bill at a later time as a revenue measure, and allow it to stand on its own merits without being attached to a bonus bill or to any other act of legislation.

At the same time, there are other members who are so firmly convinced that the sales tax is the proper and just method of taxation that they would be perfectly willing to have it made part of the bonus bill for the sole purpose of securing recognition of the sales tax principle as a method of raising revenue.

Edge Strong Believer.
Senator Edge of New Jersey is one of this number. He does not especially like the idea of having the sales tax attached to the bonus bill, but he feels so strongly that the sales tax ought to be incorporated in the bonus measure in order to have the sales tax principle established in the government's fiscal system. Senator Edge said:

"I have felt that it was so important to establish the principle of the sales tax as the method by which the government could in the future raise the major part of its revenues that even a bonus bill might be justifiable if through allowing the bonus we could adopt the principle of a sales tax for future revenue."

Senator Edge would much prefer, however, to have the bonus bill rewritten so that some other method of raising the revenue than by means of a sales tax would be adopted. In discussing the general principle of the sales tax, the senator said:

HIDDEN BY BILL
MURRAY TO LIGHT

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 14.—The "sight unseen" constitution of Oklahoma which William H. Murray, president of the convention which drafted it, secreted for fear its enemies would destroy it, has at last taken its place in the open before the eyes of all men.

A case at the Oklahoma Historical society at the statehouse has been prepared to receive it, after it has laid fifteen years in a bank vault. The document has been presented to the society by Mr. Murray. It is written on heavy parchment paper with ink that has now become brown.

Accompanying the constitution is also the original statement of the prohibition clause which was submitted separately to the voters when the constitution was voted on.

ing to W. P. Campbell, custodian of the historical society. Bitter opposition had met its every phrase, and when the document was completed, Mr. Murray, fearing, according to the custodian, that it would suffer if allowed to fall into the hands of its opponents, had a copy made which was filled with the signatures of state. The original was put in a tin box and deposited in a bank vault. The copy which was filed officially did not contain some of the signatures of the original constitution, Mr. Campbell said, and after it was filed a few changes were made in the original.

The document which is now in the custody of the historical society is therefore the only one with all the signatures and the original corrections Mr. Campbell explained. It is written on heavy parchment paper with ink that has now become brown.

Accompanying the constitution is also the original statement of the prohibition clause which was submitted separately to the voters when the constitution was voted on.

PONCA CITY, April 14.—Two unmasked men about 10 o'clock this morning robbed the Uncas State bank of Ponca about 12 miles northwest of here, securing between $1500 and $2,000 it was stated.

George M. Jacques, cashier, was alone in the bank at the time. The men were dressed in overalls that were covered with grease and appeared to be oil field workers. After obtaining funds from the bank, they drove back east across the Arkansas river bridge into the Osage, as soon as they were on the bridge they removed three boards so that pursuit would be held up. The river is high and can be crossed only at the bridge. Sheriff Dan Bain of Kay county is vice-president.

SHIFTERS FIGHT FOR LEADERSHIP
AMONG FLAPPERS

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO, April 14.—States Attorney Crowe wants to know whether the "shifters" have an organization detrimental to moral standards or whether it is merely a fad. Today he started an investigation into the activities of the flapper society which is said to have spread its doctrine rapidly through Chicago and which resulted in two men fighting over the title of "King Bee" of the western organization.

Charges that shifters encourage familiarity between sexes and promiscuous kisses between strangers, or other penalties, exacted as the initiation fee, have brought criticism from reformers and school heads.

"We want to be sure that the organization is not harmful to young people," said Attorney Canaway, detailed from the state's attorneys office to investigate.

Meanwhile Thomas A. Nolan, who says he is from the Ohio State University and one Guy Kamen engaged in a verbal war on a station that each was the chief shifter in the western territory or what they said was a proposed national organization. Both have shifter plus for sale and both admitted connection with jewelry firms.

JUNIOR CHURCH
HAS NO ADULTS
IN MEMBERSHIP

(By the Associated Press)

INDIANAPOLIS, April 14.—A junior church, the membership of which is limited to persons between six and sixteen years old, with the preacher the only adult present, is being successfully operated in this city. The plan was inaugurated by the Rev. N. S. Sichterman of Grace Presbyterian church.

According to Dr. Sichterman, there are sixty children ranging in age from six to sixteen years who are members of the junior organization. They have their own room for services, which are of thirty minutes' duration, and have their own officers. The plan was put into operation in January and Dr. Sichterman is so pleased with the results that he expects soon to double the membership.

Dr. Sichterman said the idea of forming a junior church developed from his experiences in church while a boy.

"My people came from Holland and settled in a neighborhood of Hollanders in a small Michigan town," he said. "The church I attended as a boy also used the Dutch language and the sermons some times lasted two hours or more. I well remember how tired and restless I would get as the time dragged on, for the sermon, while appealing to adults, was not such as would appeal to the child."

"It was this experience which gave birth to the junior church idea, and last January I started the organization. The results have been gratifying. The children have their own board of elders, board of deacons, and board of trustees and name their own ushers. They also have their own choir. I am the only adult present at the services. The services last only thirty minutes, which I believe is sufficient, for it keeps the children interested every minute. The hymns and text of the sermons are such that will appeal to the child mind."

Dr. Sichterman said he had started the children into engaging in three minute talks and hoped eventually to have some of them take turns at preaching.

BLAND SAYS BILL ON MARINE WOULD PLAY FAVORITES

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Enactment of the administration merchant marine bill would give the shipping board powers greater than those vested in the federal reserve board or any other government agency and might enable the shipping board to "play favorites" in giving government aid to shipping interests, Representative Bland, Virginia, the democratic member of the house merchant marine committee, declared at today's session of the joint congressional hearing on the measure.

Cross examining H. T. Merrill, reserve director for the shipping board, who helped frame the bill Mr. Bland asked whether there was any provision in the measure to prevent abuse by the shipping board of its power. Mr. Merrill replied that the board expended too "freely with its aid" the limiting of profits feature would completely protect the treasury from any careless loss on the part of the board.

DELUDED BRAIN
HELD AS CAUSE OF MAN'S DEATH

While the body of an unidentified man, believed by officials to be the victim of his own delusions, lies in a local undertaking parlor, efforts are being redoubled to get in touch with relatives of the central figure in yesterday's strange suicide here.

Except for the name "Robert Miller" scribbled on a paper, there is still no clue to his identity. The stranger was found dead at the Katy rooms shortly before noon Thursday. His body was hanging by a necktie, one end of which was fastened to the bedpole. Without a formal inquest it was pronounced suicide.

Justice of the Peace H. J. Brown discovered today in some old papers found in the pocket a scrawled note which echoed the old man's incoherent remark before his death of "an old crime." The writer did not explain the nature of his haunting memory but said "he was being hunted and would suffer for a deed he did not commit." The letter, according to officials, was rambling and apparently the product of a brain crowded with illusions. The letter and money found on the man are being held until the body is claimed.

HOUSE LEADERS
SEEKING DELAY
VOTE THURSDAY

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 14.—Changing their plan at the last moment, house leaders favoring the movement for an increase of the navy to 86,000 enlisted men, made no attempt to keep the bill from before the house until next week. A vote will be taken tomorrow, according to present indications.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—House leaders fighting for an 86,000 enlisted force amendment to the naval bill strove today to prevent a vote tomorrow when most of the members will be absent from Washington.

Claiming enough strength to win either today or next week, "big navy" men indicated they would attempt to bring about an adjournment over the week-end, failing in that, were ready to prolong five minute debates on early sections of the bill so as to make it impossible for Chairman Kelly to demand a vote on the bill tomorrow.

There was the prospect of a real filibuster with fighting at the outset to attend consideration of the measure today.

Pizes Offered To Cucumber Growers

At a conference by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce, J. B. Atkinson, who is establishing a pickle factory here, J. B. Hill, county agent, it was agreed to offer prizes totalling $125 to the most successful growers of cucumbers for the factory this season.

It was agreed that a prize of $50 given by the banks, should be offered to the grower who received the most money from an acre or more. The second prize will be $40 and is offered by the merchants. Mr. Atkinson will pay the third prize of $20, the auto dealers the fourth prize of $10 and Mr. Atkinson $5 for the fifth.

BIBLE THOUGHT OF TODAY

A SAFE FORTRESS:—As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about his people from henceforth even for ever.—Psalm 125:2.

CIVIL SERVICE.

President Harding has not yet come forward with a statement of the reasons for the wholesale dismissal of department heads in the printing department at Washington, although the removed men themselves asked that he do so. It has been charged that he violated the civil service laws by his action. From the time these laws were enacted until now there has been constant warfare between the friends of the efficient service and the spoils politicians. Civil service has gradually gained favor and efficiency of service made the basis of tenure and certainly no backward step should be taken. If the work in the clerical departments of the government is to be properly handled a man's politics should be lost sight of.

COMMUNITY MORALE.

The Morale of a community, as defined by the Iola, Kas., Register, is the spirit of good will among its people, eagerness to work together to promote the good of all, pride in its schools and churches, interest in its young people on the part of the grown-ups and a feeling of friendly intimacy toward the old folks on the part of the young people, the absence of jealousy and the presence of the spirit of co-operation—a whole community that is just like one big family, everybody taking everybody else's good will for granted and all working together for the good of all. That is what is meant by the morale of a community.

NO MUD SLINGING.

R. H. Wilson has struck a popular chord in announcing that he will indulge in no mud slinging during his campaign for governor. People are thoroughly sick and disgusted with this practice which has come down from the lark ages and will sternly rebuke those who indulge in it this year. It is especially out of place among primary candidates. The opposition uses the same dope after the primary and in times past it has come near defeating some nominees. It is certainly not good political strategy to arm the enemy.

The records of the weather bureau at Oklahoma City shows only seven killing frosts after March 13 during the past thirty-one years. This indicates that the adds are greatly in favor of the fruit and other growing stuff at this time. While not entirely out of danger these crops have a fine chance. The importance of a fruit crop this year can hardly be overestimated. Millions of cans will be put up and many cars shipped out to places not so fortunately situated.

P. S. The above was written before the norther arrived.

A bunch of ultra-modern women are insisting on being known by their maiden names, instead of taking those of their husbands. They are starting a lot of propaganda trying to make their movement a popular one. We are ready to admit that some husbands are sorry cusses and their names no particular credit to their wives, but we don't think they really deserve being snubbed in this manner. Perhaps the next move will be for the husband to take the name of his wife.

A judge in Arkansas has ruled that painting their lips and applying powder to their complexions is an inalienable right of women and girls, ordering the reinstatement of a girl who was suspended from school because she persisted in the use of these aids to beauty in defiance of the views of the school authorities. There are some rights which must be respected according to the judge.

The think tank of an editor may sometimes run dry when he starts to fill the editorial column of his paper with something to set others to thinking, but he now has four subjects that are regular standbys—the Ku Klux, the weather, the government and the styles in women's attire that may be in vogue at the time.

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram observes that the recent death of another man who captured Jefferson Davis is the first of the kind to occur for nearly a year. Judging from the notices of these deaths during the past half century the biggest part of the Union army must have had a hand in the capture.

Down in Texas the Ku Klux will be one of the main issues of the coming campaign. It will not be so much a man's fitness for an office that will count with the voters but whether he favors or opposes the Klan.

A noted singer's jewels, valued at $45,000 were reported stolen one day and reported found under a chestnut tree near Los Angeles the next. When a press agent has to resort to that one, it's time to get a new press agent.

If a lot of men would tell the truth, they would admit that they have had that tired feeling that comes with spring for a year.

Why Try Women for Murder?
(Lawton Constitution)

Again a woman on trial for murder has been acquitted to the great satisfaction of the court room crowd, remarks the New York World following the release of Olivia Stone, acquitted indeed, with an accompanying "roar of applause" by jurors who "beamed as they strode from the jury room to render their verdict." And again the cynical question occurs, is it possible in the average American court to convict a woman of murder?

Apparently it is not possible where the victim is a man—a husband or lover—and only remotely possible where the crime is of peculiar atrocity or devoid of sex complications.

Has the arraignment of a woman for murder become merely a recognized preliminary to purging her judicially of guilt? Courts and juries continue to go through the form of prosecution, but without the probability and apparently without the expectation of conviction. Cynics may ask why the formality is not dispensed with, to the greater economy and expedition of justice.

If women who commit crimes of passion are always to go free, why bother to try them? Why not provide an immunity procedure, based on the unwritten law and including recognition of the tender susceptibilities of sympathetic jurors, whereby the process of exculpation may be shortened and cheapened? Advanced feminists, those stern advocates of exact equality of the sexes under the law might object, of course. But the plan would do away with considerable hypocrisy and humbug in the august name of justice.

Churches and Dance Halls.
(Duncan Eagle)

The Rev. Harry F. Hubble, Presbyterian pastor of Buffalo, N. Y., says "all churches should install dance halls." He argues that where there is a "dance hall evil" the way to correct it is not to get rid of it, but to grab it and put the church into it.

If there were a few more ministers with so broad a viewpoint, there would be less churches which fail to hold the young man and young woman who today seek diversion where they can get it—in the church, with the church's wholesome influence, if they can, but diversion anyway, church or no church!

It's a long, long road from intolerance to sanity of thought. We jalled people for kissing their wives on Sunday but a few score years ago. When all churches lead the world in tolerance, all the churches will lead the world in influence.

(Ohio State Journal)

General Pershing, regarded as our foremost military authority, strenuously objects to the action of the house of representatives in moving to reduce the size of the standing army from 150,000 to 115,000 enlisted men. He thinks that such an economy would almost ruin the army. Allowance must be made for the fact that General Pershing is in the military business. The specialist hardly ever is able to take a broad and comprehensive view of a general situation in which his own particular specialty is concerned, and that is nothing against the specialist but merely the inevitable result of his training. It supplies the reason for the recognized fact that a civilian is more likely than a general to make a good secretary of war or more likely than an admiral to make a good secretary of the army. It would seem, if the treaties recently ratified are the powerful promoters of peace that their proponents believe them to be, as if we might get along safely with a smaller standing army than we had before. Especially is this true since the proposed reductions are intended to be made chiefly in our garrisons in the Pacific, which the four-power treaty is supposed to make safe for the four great nations concerned in the agreement. If the pen is mightier than the sword, we ought to be able to save a little money on the army now, as well as on the navy, and saving money is very important.

W. C. T. U. Meets.
The W. C. T. U. met in the home of Mrs. Leonard Braly at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. A goodly number of ladies were present, and enthusiasm was shown throughout the program.

The meeting began with scripture reading and prayer by Mrs. R. E. L. Ford.

Mrs. Brents gave her report on the presentation of a picture of Francis E. Willard to the colored school of the city by the W. C. T. U. The keynote of the W. C. T. U. work for the next few weeks will be enlistment. We not only want to enlist women in this work but also the men. Our society now has a membership of 52.

A motion was carried that the W. C. T. U. accept a flower bed in the city park. Our next meeting will be at the city hall and a special program will be rendered. This will be announced at a later date.

Bouffant Skirts With Novel Basque Effects

By MARY BROOKS PICKEN

WHAT more can one ask of Fashion than that she retain the basque dress in its entrancingly youthful interpretation and add a few distinctly new touches to set it definitely apart from its predecessors? Surely one would not consider that it be laid aside as long as its development contains any such delightful possibilities as this model of brown taffeta with collar and overskirt sections of organdie in a slightly lighter tone.

Two groups of pin tucks arranged in horizontal band effect in the underskirt combine with the crispness of taffeta and organdie to emphasize the bouffant note in the skirt.

Indicating each deep scallop of the overskirts are oval rosettes of cream colored Val.

The decidedly flared cuff attached at a point high on the sleeve, which is certainly not far removed from a drop-shoulder armhole line, is a piquant note entirely in harmony with the youthfulness of the other details of the design.

Says Dame Fashion

NEW YORK, April 14.—The neat spring suit of serge, whipcord or twill finally has made its appearance on the avenue and is setting up furious competition with the tweeds which have been popular for a month.

Navy, of course, is the favorite color. There are two styles which have the endorsement of Old Lady Fashion herself.

Most youthful and becoming to slender figures is that which shows a circular line coat, of hip length, with Buster Brown collar and three-quarter length bell-shaped sleeves.

Odds and ends of black satin braid usually trim these coats. Fantastic designs are outlined across the backs and hems and sleeves. One such was a complete spider web over the back, with smaller spider-webs on cuffs and pocket flaps.

There is a single fastening at the throat, and this sometimes is a cord of the material which ties in a little bow.

A popular fancy fastens the pockets at the very edge of the coat and allows the pouches to extend below the hem line.

The other model presents a coat well below hip length on straight, slender lines, with Tuxedo collar sailing quite to the waist and ending in a double-button fastening. Sleeves of this coat are very narrow. Seams are outlined by braid.

Skirts are straight, longer and narrower.

Tweed suits make up in brilliant colorings all that is lacking in the more dressy serges and twills.

Somewhat severe sports lines characterize these suits, although the later showings run to circular coats. Such trimming as is indicated expresses itself in rows of stitching. Scarves of Roman stripes lend additional look of gaiety.

Wherever crowds are in this city of crowded places there will be dashes of rose, Copenhagen, orange, golden brown, lavender and periwinkle. It hardly seems possible that rough, loosely woven materials such as tweed and homespun can be accomplished in such bright shades.

Sport coats appear in the same colorings and general design.

Many collars are merely scarves with fringed edges. One end is crossed over the front and thrown back carelessly on the shoulder.

Hats are running riot as to shape, trimming and shade.

The red which blazed everywhere a few weeks ago is giving place somewhat to quite as brilliant lavender, gold, green and blue. These are worked out in sports models of taffeta and are banked with flowers of all descriptions which climb against crowns and fall over the edges of brims.

A smart model seen this week was fashioned of lavender-colored satin, with a lam-o-shanter crown somewhat high in front and a narrow brim rolling back from the face.

Violet-colored satin grapes lay across the front and dropped in delicious looking bunches over the sides.

Sugar was first mentioned in history in the first century of the Christian era when Roman explorers brought a small quantity home from India.

SPSILANTI HAS SMALLEST U. S. THEATRE KNOWN

YPSILANTI, Mich., April 14.—Ypsilanti claims the smallest theatre in the country, one of the oldest of its kind anywhere and one that is regarded as a unique example of the "Little Theatre Movement."

The theatrical club was started seven years ago with fifteen members for a study of the drama. The organization has developed to a point where it occupies national prominence among supporters of the "Little Theatre Movement."

The chief object of the club at its inception was to provide entertainment for its members. After the first year the society purchased a small barn here and remodeled it into a playhouse. The same building is in use at present. The auditorium has a seating capacity of 60 persons and is but 12 by 18 feet in dimensions, with a small balcony constructed from part of what formerly was a haymow. The stage has a depth of 25 feet and a proscenium arch nine by 15 feet.

The interior of the theatre has been painted and decorated with old English lanterns, giving it an Elizabethan appearance. The stage, however, is equipped with a modern lighting system costing $2,000 and described by theatrical experts as unsurpassed within its limits by any stage in larger theatres.

Only one-act plays are offered, usually two or three of them on each night when performances are held. Following the performances players and audience join in a supper prepared in the basement of the building.

The club has become self supporting and announces it is working toward bringing about a municipal playhouse. Every member of the society is subject to call for any performance, from scene shifting to playing a role in some play. Some of the members have shown unusual ability in scene painting and costume making.

THE COTTAGE GARDENER

FLOWERS AND VINES BEAUTIFY THE COTTAGE

Posies and Clinging Green Afford an Air of Refinement and Pride in the Home. The Variety of Easily Grown Flowers Is Unlimited and Majority Are Excellent Producers.

TO HAVE POSIES ADORN THE HOME

Variety in Garden Annuals Will Assure Choice Blossoms Throughout Season.

MANY WILL SEED THEMSELVES

When Once Established Numerous Splendid Flowers Will Grow Year After Year—Endless Combinations Are Possible.

Sufficient variety in planting the garden annuals will assure cut flowers all summer, suggests the United States Department of Agriculture. There are so many different garden flowers that are easy to raise, that almost endless combinations may be selected.

One would surely want an abundance of blue cornflowers, sometimes called "bachelor's buttons," "ragged sailor," "ragged robin," or a variety of other names. When placed in water after cutting, the flowers increase in size. The seeds of these annuals should be sown in the fall or in the spring from the time the ground is fit to work until the last of May in the North and the last of June in the South. They may be started earlier under glass. The young plants should be thinned to 4 to 6 inches apart. They thrive well on all moderately rich garden soils. When once established they will usually reseed themselves year after year.

Scabiosa, often called mourning bride, pin-cushion flower, and sweet scabious, is an easily grown old-fashioned half-hardy annual that is very attractive and satisfactory both for cutting and for borders and beds. The flowers, which vary from white through rose, crimson and blue to almost black, are borne on long stems and keep a long time either on the plant or when cut. The seed should be sown in the open ground after danger from hard frost is past and the plants will bloom in about 12 weeks. There are also hardy perennial kinds.

The Popular Zinnia.

The home garden is not complete without zinnias, sometimes called "youth-and-old-age." They are easily grown from seed sown in the open ground. When sown as soon as the ground is fit to work, the plants will bloom abundantly and continuously through the entire season. Of late great improvements have been wrought both in the color and form of the flower. Their colors are white, yellow, orange, pink, rose and scarlet. During the month of August zinnias are at their best.

To secure large flowers and a profusion of bloom the plants must be given ample room for full development as well as an abundant supply of food. Strong rich soils suit them. If the seeds are sown in a dwelling house or in a hotbed and the young plants are pricked out once or twice before being placed in their permanent situations more satisfactory results will be secured than from out-door-sown seeds, unless equal care in thinning or transplanting is given. The plants can be used for groups, beds, borders, garden lines and summer hedges. Their average height is 2½ feet, ranging from 2 to 3 feet.

There are two forms of "baby's breath" of which the perennial is sometimes considered best, but the annual type may be used with good effect for combining with other cut flowers. It is sown in the open ground as soon as freezing weather is past.

For Fall Blossoms.
The China aster is certainly one of the most satisfactory of the annual flowering plants. Its habit of growth adapts the China aster to close planting for cut bloom, for window boxes and also for bedding. It should not be confused with the attractive native, hardy perennial asters.

Plants from seed sown in the open ground in May and supplied sufficient moisture bloom abundantly in September and October, when the flowers are seen at their best. For July and August blooms, the seeds should be sown in March or April. When frosts occur during this season the planting will need to be done in a coldframe, a spent hotbed or in pots or boxes in a living room. Cover the seed about half an inch deep with rich light soil, and when the plants have three or four leaves transfer them to thumb pots or to other boxes, setting the plants about two inches apart.

After all danger of frost is past transplant the plants so treated to their permanent home, where they should stand about eighteen inches apart each way in well-prepared beds. Fresh manure or manure used in too large quantities sometimes proves injurious to them. Only thoroughly composted manure mixed with the soil is safe for these plants. Small quantities of air-slaked lime or of fresh wood ashes stirred into the surface of the beds are beneficial. When given plenty of water and rich, fine soil China asters can be grown into beautiful pot plants.

In the gaillardias, or blanket flowers, are found both annual and perennial plants of easiest culture, offering a wide selection of varieties and a profusion of bloom over a long period. The blooming period begins early and continues late in the autumn. These are plants well adapted to mixed borders and are very satisfactory as cut flowers. The stems are of good length, carrying the orange and crimson flowers well, while the cut flowers keep fresh for a long time when placed in water. The perennial types are often preferred.

Plants Need Sun and Air.
The annual gaillardias are all propagated readily from seeds sown where they are to grow soon after freezing weather is past, although they can be started under glass and be transplanted to their permanent location as soon as killing frosts have passed. In either case, the blooming plants should not stand closer together than 10 to 12 inches. They grow and bloom best when fully exposed to sun and air and when planted on a fertile but light and well-drained soil.

Among various pleasing flowers one may choose from stock, calendula, candytuft, alyssum, phlox drummondii, petunias, ageratum, verbena, dahlias and gladiolus. Each gardener will have personal preferences easy to satisfy with the long list suitable for cutting when in bloom.

By The Governor of the State of Oklahoma—A Proclamation.

At the request of the President of the United States, I hereby proclaim and designate and set apart the week of April 16-22, 1922, as Forest Protection Week, and the last day of that week, April 22, as the Golden Anniversary of Arbor Day, and I do hereby request all officers of Public Instruction of counties, cities and towns, and all civic and commercial organizations to unite in thought and action for the preservation of our common heritage by planning such educational and instructive exercises as shall bring before the people the disastrous effects of the present waste of our forests, and the need of individual and collective effort to conserve the same and increase our tree growth for ornamental and other uses.

And I hereby call upon and request the State Superintendent of Public Instruction and the President of the State Board of Agriculture to join with me in an effort to interest the people of Oklahoma in the necessity of tree planting and the observance of the Anniversary of Arbor Day.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Oklahoma, at my office in Oklahoma City, this 12th day of April, 1922.

J. B. A. ROBERTSON,
(SEAL) Attest: Joe S. Morris,
Secretary of State.

At the request of the Governor and as supplemental to the above, we, the undersigned, do hereby most earnestly urge people of Oklahoma to properly observe the provisions of the foregoing Proclamation and to unitedly engage in the very necessary work of eliminating unnecessary waste to our diminishing forests and to consider the need for remedial measures against the depletion of an essential and natural resource.

(Signed) R. H. Wilson, state superintendent of public instruction.

STATE TAX GAINS FAVOR

"If congress would adopt as the method of raising revenue a general sales tax, so that everybody, rich and poor, according to their expenditures, would thus pay their proportion, and equally as important, the policy of the sales tax would thus be placed on the statute books, so that it could be used for obtaining necessary governmental revenue in the future, and permit congress to cut down high surtaxes and justification for passing the bonus bill. In other words, through this system of obtaining the revenue, the public would pay the bill through voluntary purchasing rather than still more direct taxes upon thrift and energy."

This statement by Senator Edge clearly shows the trend of Senatorial thought on the sales tax questions, which is daily coming to the front and being recognized as the soundest and simplest method proposed for revenue raising.

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—Father Seems to Be One of Those Unsung Heroes.

By F. LEWIS

Oil Stills Explode
Killing 1 Workman
And Hurting Three

(By the Associated Press)
WHITING, Ind., April 14.—One man was killed, three were injured, and a battery of ten oil stills of the Standard Oil company burned up when an explosion at the stills started a fire today which was beyond control for several hours. The intense heat from the fire made a thorough investigation impossible for some time with the result that there were rumors that the casualties were much larger. These proved to be unfounded.

Fire fighting companies from near by towns were summoned to fight the blaze which did damage estimated variously at between $100,000 and $250,000. The Standard Oil company has its own fire fighting force, however, which was able to handle the blaze finally.

A similar explosion occurred about a year ago, resulting in the death of four men who succumbed to burns received in an explosion.

The man killed today was believed to be a workman named Fred Simpson. The body was burned to a cinder and there was no way of recognizing it.

The Whiting refinery is the largest owned by the company.

RELIEF WORKERS CARE FOR NEW FLOOD BABIES

(By the Associated Press)
BEARDSTOWN, Ill., April 14.—Relief workers of the Salvation Army and the Red Cross were working among the flood refugees here this morning. They administered particularly to Little "Ducky" Looker, and other "new arrivals," including the two flood babies, born in army tents.

Little "Ducky" was born late yesterday, half an hour after his father and mother had pitched their tent after joining the increasing colony of homeless, which now numbers nearly 500. The other flood baby reached Beardstown a little earlier.

Grocers in the center of the town selling merchandise in two feet of water, today called the attention of Mayor Perry to the fact that an inventory of provision had better be taken, as the city of 8,500 population was making big inroads into present stores, and threatened suspension of the only railroad remaining in service would make supply service very difficult.

Needy persons were cheered by a gift of 4,000 fresh fish, distributed by the Salvation Army. This supply was donated by a local company and was supplemented by the announcement that Beardstown still was able to take care of herself and needed no outside help.

Oklahoma's Quota in Sheppard-Towner Act
To Be Received Soon

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, April 14.—The $5,000 allotted to Oklahoma under the Sheppard-Towner act is expected soon, and plans have been made by the state health department to begin using the fund May 1, according to Miss Leila Hoagland, who is in charge of the bureau of public health education under Dr. A. R. Lewis, state health commissioner.

Miss Hoagland said that on the foregoing date a traveling nurse and a stenographer will be added to the bureau, this being all that can be done with the limited funds available. The nurse will have the entire state as her territory, but because of the size of her field, will operate only in those places which have no Red Cross nurses or county health nurses. The stenographer will be employed in the bureau here.

Literature will be sent out from here and publicity of all kinds given to health lessons which the bureau is seeking to put before the public, Miss Hoagland said. Later, when more funds are available, a regular staff of nurses will be employed and the program of the bureau enlarged.

Oklahoma, under the law, has $10,000 to be used up to July 1, 1923. During the next fiscal year $18,000, or as much thereof as is matched by state funds, will be allotted to the state, Miss Hoagland said in explaining the provisions of the Sheppard-Towner law. A campaign is now being waged among the club women of the state to urge an appropriation by the next Oklahoma legislature to match the entire federal offer.

Cumming Uses Radio
To Spread Interest
In Hospital Growth

CHICAGO, April 14.—Surgeon General Hugh S. Cumming of the United States Public Health Service, Washington, has discovered a new use for radio and has already begun a campaign to interest the rapidly growing army of radio "fans" in National Hospital Day, May 12. Two messages informing the million or more radio listeners of the desire of the 8,000 hospitals of the United States to tell the people more about their functions and services already have been broadcast by the powerful government transmitting station, and others are in course of preparation, including a bulletin based on President Harding's recent letter urging the country to participate in National Hospital Day. This is the first time the vast interest in radiophones has been utilized to promote an education movement, according to word received by Matthew O. Foley, executive secretary, National Hospital Day Committee, Chicago, with whom the U. S. P. H. S. is co-operating.

6,668 H. S. GRADS
IN STATE, CENSUS
FOR YEAR SHOWS

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, April 14.—There were 7,961 public school buildings in Oklahoma on June 30, 1921, in which 16,661 teachers instructed 697,616 pupils, according to the annual statistical report for the year just completed by the state educational department. Of the teachers enumerated in the report, 2,800 were high school instructors while the number of high school pupils was set at 49,364. High school graduates were 6,668. The average daily attendance for the year was 390,590, or 64 per cent of those enrolled, the report sets out.

The public school libraries in the state have 762,297 volumes valued at $831,306.61; eighty-five districts have medical inspection; 113 have truancy officers and 84 maintain public playgrounds, the report continues.

During the year covered in the report $17,214,960.94 was paid for salaries of teachers, superintendents, supervisors and principals. The total amount of warrants issued against the general fund is given as $26,477,161.60. The report shows cash on hand June 30, 1921, of $10,775,945.10. The total bonded school indebtedness of the state is given as $40,752,353.79 and the total value of school buildings and equipment as $5,354,273.81.

In independent districts the cost of maintaining separate, or negro, schools was greater than that for white schools, the report reveals. In rural districts, however, the negro schools were less expensive per capita. The average per capita cost in independent districts in the grades is given as $33.66 for white children and $35 for negroes. In the high school the per capita cost for white children is set at $82.93 and negroes at $96.43. In the schools under the supervision of the county superintendent the per capita cost for white children was $33.80 and negroes $19.12.
